Columbus Belmont State Park

Hospitality as Mighty as the Mississippi

HOLD YOUR NEXT MEETING AT COLUMBUS BELMONT

Columbus-Belmont State Park is a 156-acre site that played a fascinating role in the War Between the States. The Park grounds and Civil War Museum illustrate for the guest the culture and war strategies of this period. This is the site of fortifications built by the Confederates and later occupied by Union forces. The 1861 Battle of Belmont, a raid fought to test the strength of this Confederate stronghold, marked the opening of the Union's Western Campaign. It was also Union General Ulysses S. Grant's first active engagement in the Civil War. Some of the artillery, which shelled the Union troops, and the six-ton anchor that held the great chain stretching across the river, are on display in the park.

CONFERENCE ROOM & SHELTERS

Groups appreciate the opportunity to get away from the hustle and bustle of urban life at this small, scenic park perched above the Mississippi River. The park's contemporary meeting facility blends into the surrounding forestland with its two meeting rooms.

The largest of the meeting rooms is 2,400 square feet and can seat up to 180 people in a classroom style of seating. Ask our staff about dance floors, stages and catering kitchen available for use. The smaller of the two rooms is 520 square feet and will comfortably seat 32 people in banquet style set-up.

Shelters are available for rental from April 1 to October 31. Activities building open year-round for rental.

MUSEUM Treat your guests to a walk back into time by visiting this wonderful museum. It will be an event that they will never forget.

TRAILS There is a 2.5-mile self-guided hiking trail in the Park. Dramatic images of the Civil War come to mind when walking on the bluffs and massive earthen works that formed the Confederate trenches.

CAMPING The campground has 38 sites with utility hookups and grills. A central service building offers rest rooms, showers, and laundry facilities.
